DISPOSITION OF UNCLAIMED PROPERTY & PAYMENT OF EXCESS

Any excess funds remaining from the sale of property after payment of all tax, penalties, fees, interest, and other costs are held in escrow by the Tax Commissioner; available for claim by owner(s) and other parties holding a recorded interest in the property as their interest appears and in order and priority in which their interest exists.

As paraphrased:

O.C.G.A. § 48-4-5 (a)

In cases of third-party requests for funds, or in the event of competing or conflicting claim(s), an interpleader action may be filed with the Superior Court of Coweta County for a Judicial Order regarding disbursement. Such excess shall be distributed by the superior court to intended parties, and included the owner as their interest appears and in order of priority in which their interests exist. All reasonable attorney fees and court costs will first be paid from the excess funds requested prior to the disbursement of any remaining funds. As paraphrased:

O.C.G.A. § 48-4-5(b)

Claim Submission Requirements:

1. The Tax Commissioner's Office requires no "claim form" for excess funds claims resulting from Tax Sales.
2. Claims must be in writing to the Coweta County Tax Commissioner stating the basis of your claim, signed and notarized, and submitted to our office along with proper photo identification. Addressed to 87 Newnan Station Drive, Suite 100, Newnan GA 30265.
3. The legal owner of the property, absent any other priority lienholder(s), may file a claim for excess funds.
4. Lienholders with a priority interest who file a claim must provide a written payoff amount of their current lien good through the date of claim, as amount of excess claimed cannot exceed current lien value.
5. Submission of a certified title report (good through date of request) is encouraged.
6. Claimants should provide copies of all relevant documentation (both recorded and non-recorded) in support of their claim, such as (Warranty Deeds, Security Deeds, Assignments, Powers of Attorney, etc.).

Upon submission and subsequent review, any necessary additional information will be required of the claimant prior to any final determination made regarding the payment of claim.

Note: All claims and accompanying documentation are subject to review by counsel for legal opinion regarding disbursement.
